THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Home Minister sahib says "Kalmadi mentioned about the mist, not the mess."

PROF. SAURIN BHATTACHARYA: We were taken to Centaur Hotel for dinner. We are not accustomed to such places. We were confined in that hotel—so to say, we were not allowed to go back to the airport. Then at midnight only by shouting and threatening the Centaur Hotel people... (Interruptions)... Mr. Scindia is an efficient Minister. He must pay attention to it.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Okay. All right.

DR. NAGEN SAIKIA (Assam): Madam Deputy Chairman, I want to draw the attention of the House, through you that on the 28th November, 1991 we appealed to the striking doctors to withdraw their strike and they withdrew. It was hoped that the Minister of Health would sort out the problems before the 15th December, 1991 but yet it has not been resolved. One or two of the striking doctors are on indefinite fast. It is a very serious matter. If all the doctors go on strike, it will again create problems for the whole country.

Therefore, I want the Minister of Health to come to this House and make a statement on this matter.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Now, I am allowing Mr. Balaram who does not shout. Yes, Mr. Balaram.

SHRI N. E. BALARAM (Kerala): Madam, pilots are on strike. It is a fact. No flights are going. I do not know who is in charge of it. Nearly thousands of passengers are stranded at the airport and they are demonstrating inside the airport. I do not know what is happening in this country. Somebody must tell us, why this strike is going on?... (Interruptions)...

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: The Minister was to move the motions for reference of Bills to Joint Committees. There was some technical problem in the typing of the list and she wants to do it now. Let me finish that first because that business takes precedence over everything else (Interruptions) After the motions for reference, you can ask for permission. Now, motions for reference of Bills to Joint Committees. Smt. Sheila Kaul.

THE CONSTITUTION (SEVENTY-SECOND AMENDMENT BILL, 1991.
